

NASHE ENTERPRISES

MISSION/VISSION:

To promote responsible gun ownership, providing each client an overview of safety gun handling and proper safety habits. It is our concern to contribute to individual and government entities the general safety measures.

Our goal is to reach the utmost level of satisfactory performance, competitive advantage, while providing our clients the best service possible without neglecting our personnel development and enhancement.

BRIEF HISTORY

NASHE ENTERPRISES was founded in 1989 by its young and energetic President/Owner, MARY JANE NACISVALENCIA-ROXAS. She started importing products through a supplier in Singapore and United State of America. The company has grown tremendously in a couple of years expanding to two provincial branches in Bacolod and Iloilo and later in Cebu and Davao. It got its first exclusive distributorship contract with Corbon Bullet manufacturing in Michigan in 1991. Then Heckler and Koch in 1994 came. In 1996 and 1997, exclusive contracts with SAKO rifles from Finland, Walther pistols from Germany and Armalite rifle from U.S.A.
